

Presbytery of West Virginia's Leadership Development Coordinating Team Presents:

Leading Congregations Amid Change

with

Ken McFayden

Saturday, June 2, 2018

9:30 am - 4:30 pm

at Village Chapel Presbyterian Church, Charleston

Course Description

Most people look to their congregations as places of stability, certainty, and predictability, and to pastoral leaders to preserve these dimensions of congregational life. Many congregations, however, are experiencing significant change in their mission, membership, and material resources. This workshop will explore how to lead pastorally in the midst of change, particularly as congregations seek to build upon the best of the past as they envision a faithful future.

Ken McFayden serves as Academic Dean of the Richmond Campus and Professor of Ministry and Leadership Development and teaches courses in congregational leadership and administration at Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, VA. He has served as keynote speaker and workshop leader on the topic of leadership and change in a variety of settings. He taught a Church Administration Course in our ALP/CRE Preparation Program.

Registration deadline: Thursday, May 24. Cost: $75 (does not include lunch), due with registration.
